

Specifier Roundtable Thursday, October 20, 2016

Delegated Design in Specifications

This month we will be discussing the role of the specifications in the definition and administration of delegated design portions of construction contracts. The discussion will focus on which portions of work delegated design is commonly assigned in construction, effective practices for defining and administering delegated design, and how delegated design assigns liability for the completed work.

The discussion will be moderated but input from all is strongly encouraged.

Moderated by: Melissa Gibson, AIA, NCARB, CSI, CCA, LEED AP BD+C
Associate Vice President, Specifier
Epstein

Learning Objectives:

1. Define “delegated design” and where it is commonly used in contract documents.
2. Discuss how delegated design impacts liability of both the GC and the design professional.
3. Understand the role of the specifications in defining the scope and performance criteria of delegated design.
4. Discuss the common points of confusion during the construction contract administration of delegated design.

About CSI Specifiers Roundtables: Sessions are held in an informal setting to encourage dialog and attendees are welcome to bring a snack or lunch. Specifier roundtables are a forum for specifiers and architects to discuss specification topics, exchange ideas and share lessons learned. Experienced, as well as new specifiers, are encouraged to attend these small group sessions that require participation and input by attendees.
