

NEWS AND INFORMATION FOR CSI CHICAGO MEMBERS SEPTEMBER 2010

In Memory...

Robert L. McManus, beloved husband and father passed away the morning of Sunday, August 22. He was 87 years old. A resident of Chicago, Robert McManus was born in 1922 in Carmi, IL, was captain of his football team at Havana High School and attended Bradley University on a football scholarship. When World War II erupted, he enlisted in the US Army Air Corps where he flew 2-wing Stearman aircraft. His military career cut short by tuberculosis, he returned to Illinois and graduated from the University of Illinois in Champaign. In the late 50's, he formed his own plastering and acoustical engineering company, R.L. McManus & Company in Peoria, IL. Later he joined the architectural firm of John Hackler and Co. as a partner. In 1980, he joined the consulting-engineering firm, Beling Consultants in Chicago as a Senior Vice President. He was a Past President and Distinguished Member and Fellow of the Construction Specifications Institute. An avid bass fisherman and lifelong fan of the Fighting Illini football team, the Chicago Bears and the Chicago Cubs, Robert McManus was also a world class 3-cushion billiard player. He won several Peoria City 3-Cushion Billiard Championships and was the National Amateur 3-Cushion Billiard Champion in 1985. He is survived by his wife, Dr. Carroll Cradock, and three daughters, Laurie Spillman of Raymond, OH, Katie McManus-Faye of Dothan, AL and Bridgit Marquez, of Washburn IL. He has four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. He is also survived by his brother, Jack McManus of Peoria, IL and nephew, John McManus of Sarasota, FL. He was a man of great honor, quick wit and impeccable character. He will be missed by his friends and especially his family. A private memorial service is being planned to take place at Bull Shoals Lake in Mt. Home, Arkansas. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the Chicago School of Professional Psychology Scholarship Fund or to the U of I Foundation. Arrangements by Cremation Society of Illinois, 773-281-5058 or www.cremation-society.com
